**Synopsis**

Francis is a domestic house cat and a new arrival to New York City after moving from Miami Shores due to a job transfer. Settling down in Manhattan in the Harlem neighborhood, he is soon spooked by the dead body of a cat named Sascha. He also encounters a street cat named Bluebeard who shows him more murders in the city caused by a deadly virus known as Blacklight. Feeling that there's more to the murders than he thought, Francis, and his new friend Bluebeard, must find out who created and/or released the virus and uncover the truth. In doing so, he crosses paths with a murderous cult of cats, and their leader Joker, a blind but wise Russian Blue cat named Felicity, and a tech-savvy elderly cat named Pascal. In his quest, he encounters various twists and turns including a mysterious prophet named Claudandus, Francis's own nightmares, a list of "perfect breeding" cat called Felidae, and a group of mad scientists led by a man named Alex Mercerâ€|.
